

Australia Bringing Hope Inc presents

A Ugandan Story

One Woman's Experience

Friday July 1 2011

6.30pm at the Bentley's Hotel

Irene Grigg was born and raised in a remote village near the Kenyan border. She grew up in polygamous home as one of nine siblings. She attended primary school in the village and then went to boarding school in Kampala for her secondary education. Irene has a degree in social sciences, a post graduate diploma in education and is currently doing her masters in organisational leadership and management. Irene was a supervisor in the Ugandan Revenue Authority before resigning to join her husband, Phill, in the village of Kaihura to work with Australia Bringing Hope.

Irene is an incredible communicator and has an amazing story of strength and wisdom to share.

An event for women to hear one woman's journey in remote Uganda.

Join us for dinner at the Bentley's Hotel in Clare at 7pm followed by Irene's story at 8pm.
